Partner Gerard Lederer Files Opposition to FCC Broadband Infrastructure Plans

Filed on Behalf of Tech Officers from Six Cities, Law360 Reports

Best Best & Krieger LLP Partner Gerard Lederer represents the chief technology officers of six U.S. cities in the opposition to two FCC broadband infrastructure proposals. As Law360 reported on Sept. 14, the filing submitted by Gerard notes that the proposals “have risked hundreds of millions of dollars in potential investments and jeopardized the effective deployment of advanced networks.”
